About ACERE

The Australasian Consortium for Entrepreneurship Research Excellence (ACERE) is an incorporated membership-based association established in 2024 to support academics, researchers and educators in the field of entrepreneurship and innovation in Australia and the surrounding regions of New Zealand and Asia.

From 2025 ACERE will assume the stewardship of the annual ACERE conference which has a proud 21-year history. Until 2024 this conference was operated under the stewardship of QUT - formerly Swinburn as the AGSE conference. ACERE has developed a reputation as a high-quality conference with a developmental and friendly character. It offers development opportunities for all stages of your academic career, and excellent networking opportunities with world renown scholars.

ACERE is dedicated to advancing entrepreneurship research, education, and practice in the Australasian region. Through collaboration and knowledge sharing, ACERE fosters innovation and supports the development of impactful entrepreneurship initiatives.

About Deakin University

With over 60,000 students from Australia and around the world, Deakin University provides progressive, real-world learning that leads to career success. Being among the top 1% of universities worldwide, Deakin has four faculties and fourteen schools. Deakin has four outstanding campuses in Melbourne (Burwood), Geelong, and Warrnambool, along with a premium online learning platform that exceeds any other in Australia. Deakin also has corporate and learning centres, including Deakin Downtown, that provide meeting, study, and event spaces for both students and the community. Deakin Business School is part of the Faculty of Business and Law and holds dual accreditations with AACSB and EQUIS.

Deakin Downtown

Located in the heart of Melbourne's CBD, Deakin Downtown is a modern and sophisticated venue that offers state-of-the-art facilities for conferences, workshops, and events. It provides an ideal setting for fostering collaboration and innovation among scholars, practitioners, and industry professionals.
